Description

Oil on canvas-textured board depicting an interior view with an open window, by Joseph Lucien Schibi, an Alsatian painter born in 1908 and died in 1980. Signed lower right. Good condition. Recent molded gilt-wood frame. Dimensions without frame : 46 x 38 cm. Dimensions with frame : 55.5 x 47.5 cm. Although trained at the School of Decorative Arts in Strasbourg, Joseph Lucien Schibi primarily viewed painting as a passion pursued alongside his career as a journalist. Having spent most of his life in Saverne, he focused mainly on painting local landscapes, though he also produced some still lifes, views of Florence, and nudes. His first exhibition took place in Saverne alongside Albert Thomas, prior to a retrospective of his work held at the town museum in 1982.
