Description

Antique enameled cast-iron planter, likely from the famous foundry in Charleville-Mézières (or Deville). A decorative piece with authentic charm and a very sturdy structure. Material: Enameled cast iron. Style & Decor: Rocaille / Louis XV style with fluted body, cut-out / scalloped border, and volute-shaped leaf handles. Base: Rests on 4 carved legs shaped like lion's claws / paws. Finish / Enamel: Antique speckled enamel with a dark chocolate-gray patina, giving it a beautiful, vintage aged look.
