Description

A charming pair of framed round portraits under glass, painted in miniature on ivory, presented in simple, dark-stained oak frames that highlight these delicate paintings of young women from the Ancien Régime. Executed with sensitivity, these lovely depictions, with their well-preserved pastel tones, make for an exquisite decorative pair; in the spirit of the 18th century, these small works embody its essence (circa 1850). Furthermore, these pieces are in very good condition and are offered at an attractive price.
