Description

Louis XV-style bottle cooler - 19th century
Elegant Louis XV-style bottle cooler, made of fruitwood, dating from the late 19th century. With a flowing shape, it rests on three curved legs and features an elegantly scrolled band, typical of the Louis XV style. The molded top features three circular compartments housing three removable metal buckets, designed to hold bottles and keep them cool. An original and decorative piece, now quite rare, which can today be used for its original purpose next to a table or add a distinctive touch to an interior. Beautiful antique patina. In good overall condition, with normal signs of use and age. Period: late 19th century
Style: Louis XV
Material: fruitwood
Dimensions: Height 68 cm × Width 48 cm × Depth 48 cm.
