

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Folding Chair From An Ocean Liner, French Ocean Liner Company, 1890-1920

600 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Solid wood

Description

A stunning and authentic Pullman-style transatlantic cruise chaise longue, dating from the late 19th / early 20th century. This exceptional antique, originally intended for the decks or first-class cabins of the great transatlantic liners of the era, combines cutting-edge engineering with timeless aesthetics. Key Features & Notable Details: * Premium Materials: A foldable and reclining frame made of dark solid wood, with armrests adorned with elegant vertical columns and upper ends carved into knobs. * Seat: Single piece of light-colored raw canvas, stretched across the back with original grommets and cords, complete with a geometric, extendable, and retractable footrest. * Historic Mark of Authenticity: The wooden base bears the famous French patent mark "S.G.D.G. DÉPOSÉ" (Sans

Dealer

Furlan Antichità Biella

Antiquités

Mobile : +39 3487652132

Via Milano 84

Biella 13900

Garantie du Gouvernement), certifying its mechanical authenticity and historical origin.

Condition of the Item: The wooden frame is solid and features a beautiful patina of age. The canvas is in excellent condition and retains its original rustic charm. Approximate dimensions :

Folded chair: Height 128 cm - Width 75 cm -

Depth 45 cm Chair Open: Height 120 cm -

Width 75 cm - Depth 120 cm - CONTACT

-FOR ANY ADDITIONAL INFORMATION,

PLEASE DO NOT HESITATE TO CONTACT

US!EMAIL furlanantichita@gmail.com