Description

Silver and vermeil ciborium - Martin & Dejean - Paris, 1837-1846
Description
Elegant solid silver ciborium in the neoclassical style, resting on a wide circular base adorned with a rich engraved design featuring Eucharistic symbols, ears of wheat, grapevines, and floral motifs, which are repeated on the baluster-style shaft and the lid. The lid is topped with an openwork cross. The interior of the cup is gilded.
Hallmarks of the Parisian silversmiths Martin & Dejean, who worked together between 1837 and 1846, as well as visible hallmark marks.
Height: 25.5 cm
Weight: 255 g
Condition
Good overall condition considering its age. Minor deformities and traces of an old solder joint near the cross, visible in the photographs.
Comes with its cream-colored silk ciborium cover, embroidered
