Description

Elegant English side table, known as a "tea table," made of walnut and stamped "Holland & Sons." A small, uncommon model, as it is smaller and lower than usual; it is called a "tea table" because people in those days used them for afternoon tea. An ingenious design, as the base is reinforced with lead to ensure stability. A sign of the table's fine quality. This small model features a superb solid walnut top with a beautiful, natural grain, carved from a single piece and featuring a small molding. A tripod base with a beautiful turned base. Beautiful patina and in perfect condition. Delivery available in Belgium, France, and internationally. On display in our showroom at 41 Rue Henri Wafelaerts, 1060 Brussels, Belgium. More information and photos available upon request.
