Description

Jeanne-Marie BERTAUX(1924-2024)Bird in FlightFresco painting on stoneMonogrammed "JM.B" in the lower right corner17 x 22.5 cm x 5.2 cmBorn in 1924 in Flers, in the Orne department, Jeanne-Marie Bertaux studied at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris before embarking on a career as a painting restorer, which she pursued notably in the Louvre's workshops for over 25 years. At the same time, she began a career as a painter, drawn to traditional techniques. Thus, her subjects became, on a material level, a pretext for experimenting with these traditional media, such as casein, egg tempera, and fresco painting. But far from being mere technical explorations, her works express her longing for space, air, and light.Learn more:I am at your disposal for any additional
