Double-strand Pearl Necklace With A Diamond Clasp

8 000 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

A necklace consisting of two rows of pearly white Oriental cultured pearls, held together by a clasp. The clasp is round and adorned in the center with a vintage brilliant-cut diamond set in a claw-set illusion setting. On either side are set 6 old-cut cushion-cut diamonds, also held in place by prongs, and 6 geometric motifs adorned with old-cut diamonds. The clasp is a ratchet clasp; the push button is set with one of the diamonds and features an additional safety mechanism on the underside. The two rows of pearls fall in a cascading style so that the clasp sits on the side. Period: 20th century Main materials: white gold, 750 parts per thousand, eagle-head hallmark, and platinum, dog-head hallmark. Total weight of the center diamond: approximately 0.78 carats. Total weight of the other diamonds:

approximately 1.38 carats. Dimensions: Height: approx. 18.3 mm, width: approx. 18.3 mm, thickness: approx. 10 mm. Diameter of pearls: approx. 6.5/7 to 7/7.5 mm. Length: approximately 49 cm. Net weight: approximately 74.4 g. Authentic antique jewelry--French craftsmanship from the 1950s. Our opinion: The cultured pearls in this double-strand necklace are magnificent--round, uniform, and with a brilliant luster. The elegant, diamond-studded clasp can be worn on the side or at the back, given the slight drape of the pearls.
