Description

Jeanne-Marie BERTAUX(1924-2024)The Curled-Up CatFresco painting on stone15.1 x 15.8 cm x 4.9 cmBorn in 1924 in Flers, in the Orne department, Jeanne-Marie Bertaux trained at the École des Beaux-Arts in Paris before embarking on a career as a painting restorer, which she pursued notably in the Louvre's workshops for over 25 years. At the same time, she began a career as a painter, drawn to traditional techniques. Thus, her subjects became, on a material level, a pretext for experimenting with traditional media such as casein, egg tempera, and fresco painting. But far from being mere technical explorations, her works express her longing for space, air, and light.Learn more:I am at your complete disposal for any further information.Please feel free to contact me at
