1 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Gold

Description

For pierced ears. Rose gold lever-back earrings featuring a hinged clasp that fastens from the back, the oval-shaped setting is closed-set in the center with a two-layer agate cameo depicting the profile and bust of a young woman, all delicately engraved. Period: 19th century Main material: rose gold, 750 parts per thousand, 18 karats, eagle's head hallmark. Dimensions: Height: approx. 2.3 cm, width: approx. 1 cm, thickness: approx. 6.5 mm. Net weight: approx. 4 g. Authentic antique jewelry - French craftsmanship from the late 19th century. Our opinion: These lovely rose gold cameo earrings are the perfect size--neither too large nor too small--and could be paired with the matching cameo pendant-brooch in the same style.
