Description

Remarkable fruitwood sculpture, assembled from several carved elements, depicting the Greek god Chronos seated, with large raised wings, holding a scythe in his right hand and sheaves of wheat resting on his left knee. The wood has a beautiful warm patina. This powerful allegory of Time may have been inspired by celebrated sculpture by Ignaz Günther (1725-1775), now in Munich and illustrated in the final photograph. Alpine folk carving, 18th-19th century, probably work of a skilled anonymous sculptor from the Alpine region, possibly Austria, Switzerland, Northern Italy or Tyrol. 38 × 38 × 28 cm Buy Now: Pay by credit card or PayPal. eclectic -- We are not experts, but we have been in the business for over 50 years.
