Description

Surrealist bas-relief made of papier-mâché and paper lace, set in a painted wooden frame that forms a tray. Work by Sophie Daurel, a visual artist based in Bordeaux. The sculpture is signed and dated on the back: "13/07/96 S. Daurel". This bas-relief features a row of female breasts, presented within paper lace applied to a painted wooden tray with a leopard-print pattern. A sensual and erotic sculpture. Sophie Daurel is a free-spirited artist who does not hesitate to donate her art to beautify her city.
