Description

Design for a Tomb 18th-century etching by Floding Per Gustav (1731-1791) Swedish engraver after a composition by Simon Challe (1719-1765) dated 1789 in the lower right corner 59 x 39.4 cm 23.23 x 15.51 inches. This engraving is approximately 240 years old. It has been carefully cleaned by our professional restorer to remove the traces of ageing accumulated over time, while preserving its original character. There is a small area of loss in the right-hand margin, repaired, approximately at the centre (please refer to the photographs). A small repaired tear is present in the lower margin. We strongly recommend examining all photographs carefully, as they form an integral part of the description and provide a detailed representation of the engraving's condition.
