Description

This vase is an iconic creation by the renowned French ceramicist Mado Jolain (1921-2019). Trained at the École des Arts Décoratifs in Paris, Mado Jolain established her studio with her husband, René Legrand, in 1948. She is known for her work with thrown, pinched, and perforated forms. The two side perforations and the asymmetrical, organic silhouette are characteristic of her aesthetic explorations. Height: 24 cm
