

Vermeil Silverware (18th-century Strasbourg)

1 900 EUR

Signature : Jacques Henri Alberti (reçu en 1764)

Period : 18th century

Condition : Parfait état

Material : Vermeil

Description

A set Louis XVI period vermeil travel cutlery under the crown of "marquess", including a spoon and a fork in their original embossed leather case, gilded with small iron motifs and a violone finish, lined with red chamois, made between 1775 and 1785. This is a net model featuring a double alliance shield on the spoon's handle: on the left, the husband's coat of arms--"Gules, a gold chevron accompanied in the chief by two flowering branches and in the base by a lion rampant"--and on the right, the wife's--"Azure, a gold trefoil cross " Silversmith: Jacques Henri Alberti (1730-1795) Place of origin: Strasbourg Various hallmarks, including that of the Fermiers Généraux for Alsace Weight: 174 g

Dealer

Assour & Sumer

Orfèvrerie et argenterie, arts de la table

Mobile : 0680387535

village notre Dame , 61 rue notre Dame

Bordeaux 33000