Description

Jules Moigniez (1835-1894) - "Fight Between Two Sparrows" - Bronze, 1867 model A very beautiful old cast in bronze with a golden-brown patina, depicting a fight between two sparrows, a work by the famous French animal sculptor Jules Moigniez (1835-1894). The model, created in 1867, depicts a particularly lively animal scene with great movement and realism. The birds are captured in the midst of a confrontation, wings spread, in a dynamic composition that reflects Moigniez's characteristic attention to detail in rendering plumage and his naturalistic observation. The terrace, richly carved and adorned with plant motifs, plays a full part in the composition. The brown patina with golden-brown hues particularly highlights the modeling and the sculpture's numerous
