Description

Oil on panel. Hand-signed. The women in Juan Garcés's work embody an elegant and evocative ideal, imbued with an incomparable Belle Époque atmosphere where sensuality and sophistication come together. Far from any academic coldness, the artist, born in Pontevedra, depicts his female figures enveloped in captivating atmospheres imbued with a strong poetic charge. The grace of his brushwork and the uniqueness of his treatment of color and light highlight the melancholy and serenity of his subjects. Her feminine archetypes, often set within compositions imbued with a timeless nostalgia, reflect the wanderlust and seafaring spirit that characterized the artist, making the woman a symbol of grace, mystery, and aesthetic contemplation.
