Description

Oil on canvas. Original painting.

Hand-signed. Roser Vinardell's nudes embody a feminine ideal of understated elegance and profound introspection, a direct heir to the innovative spirit that characterized the Barcelona School of the 1960s. Far from any artifice or classical idealization, her work approaches the human figure with a pure and poetic sensibility, where anatomy takes on soft volume, confident lines, and a restrained palette. Her compositions reveal an intimate and serene woman, master of her space, synthesizing the Catalan transition between postwar figurative art and interwar modernism: a new perspective that celebrates the body with empathy, dignity, and a timeless Mediterranean sensibility, marked by a resolutely personal touch. Unframed image dimensions: 90 x
