Description

A distinctive Belgian Art Deco pedestal crafted in solid oak, dating from the 1920s. The piece features a square display top supported by elegantly pierced brackets, lending a subtle Gothic Revival character to its otherwise geometric Art Deco design. The tall, slender column rises from a robust cross-shaped base with stepped feet, creating a striking architectural silhouette. The warm oak grain and rich patina enhance the pedestal's refined presence, making it an ideal stand for a sculpture, ceramic vessel, plant, or decorative object. With its balanced proportions and sculptural form, this pedestal functions equally well as a display stand and as a decorative accent in both traditional and contemporary interiors. Presented in good vintage condition with minor wear consistent with age.
