Description

Beautiful Mahogany Cabaret Table Attributed to the Mailfert Workshops. It can be used as a coffee table, game table, etc... A very beautiful Louis XV-style cabaret table in light mahogany and darkened mahogany. A fine piece of craftsmanship dating from around 1900, attributed to the Mailfert Amos workshops. Built like a true period cabaret table, it is entirely doweled. The cabaret top is covered with beautiful burgundy leather embellished with small metal studs. The crossbars are beautifully scroll-cut and molded. It rests on four splayed legs ending in hoof-shaped feet. A stunning cabaret table crafted from mahogany, with blackened mahogany accents on the trim and moldings that create a striking contrast. A remarkable piece from around 1900, attributed to the workshops of Mailfert
