Description

An elegant wrought-iron tripod side table with rich naturalistic decoration featuring grape clusters and vine leaves, resting on three arched legs joined by a circular crossbar that forms a low tabletop made of cut-out sheet metal. The openwork band is adorned with a design of spiral scrolls and hammered twists, characteristic of the Art Nouveau ornamental style. The legs are embellished with finely crafted relief appliqués depicting meticulously modeled grape clusters. Circular tabletop in veined white marble. This piece is part of the tradition of French artistic ironwork from the late 19th or early 20th century, in the style of the École de Nancy. In good overall condition, with slight signs of wear and original patina. Dimensions Height: 80 cm Top diameter: 40 cm We deliver and ship
