Description

Urban Landscape, 1974, by Folco Chiti Battelli. Florentine Landscape, dated and signed. Dimensions: 60/80 cm Oil on canvas The work belongs to the Florentine school of painting of the second half of the 20th century. The artist follows in the tradition of Post-Impressionism. Some biographical notes on the painter. Biography In keeping with his character, his biography is also uneventful, except for the numerous exhibitions in which he began participating in 1963 (the first was at the Saletta del Fiorino on Via Tosinchi). The artist was thirty-one years old at the time (he was born in Florence in 1932) and had studied at the Art Institute and the Academy of Fine Arts in Florence under the guidance of Gianni Vagnetti. From there, his exhibitions followed in rapid succession. Some are worth mentioning, both in Italy and abroad: in 1970 at the Galleria Inquadrature in Florence, in 1986 at the Galleria Pro Arte in Lugano, in 1988 at the Galleria Pirra in Turin, in 1995 at the Galleria Poggiali e Forconi in Florence, and in 1997 at the Galleria dell'Oficina in Brescia. In 1977, Chiti Battelli also participated in the Premio del Fiorino, making it to the final three. His partnership with the Pananti Gallery was also extremely prolific, with the gallery presenting his works on several occasions (1972, 1974, 1979, 1982, 1984, 1991, 2001). Among his most recent exhibitions were the 2002 show at the Accademia delle Arti del Disegno in Florence and the 2005 exhibition at the Archaeological Museum of Fiesole. Since 2007, one of his self-portraits has been part of the Uffizi Gallery's Collection of Self-Portraits. He died in Florence in 2011.
