Description

An elegant, gilded Rococo-style chandelier. It features 6 lights on the outside of the chandelier and 6 small lights on the inside. The chandelier is adorned with various clear crystals, large floral rosettes, and poignards. The central stem at the top is adorned with magnificent decorative vases. The branches of the crown are connected by a network of small glass tubes--very decorative! A large faceted ball hangs from the bottom of the chandelier. Period: early 20th century.
