Description

Stunning Russian solid silver mugs/cups with handles, richly engraved with Neoclassical-inspired scrollwork and foliage motifs. Engraved with a chisel; assembled with a threaded stem at the base. Origin: Tsarist Russia. Solid silver (Russian fineness: 84 zolotniks, equivalent to 875/1000). Hallmark identified below the rim: * fineness mark: 84.* Assayer's hallmark dated 1849, accompanied by the master assayer's Cyrillic initials: Letter K* Silversmith's hallmark: Cyrillic initials I. K.* City hallmark. Weight: 191 grams. The engraving is very delicate, covering both the body of the piece and the base. The handle is fluted and features beautiful scrollwork. It has a beautiful patina of age with slight signs of wear; see photo. Note that the rim of the foot is slightly dented. A
