Description

A beautiful oil-on-canvas painting depicting a lavish bouquet of flowers in vibrant hues, created by the French painter Geneviève Chapront, born in 1909. This floral composition captivates with its free and expressive brushwork, its interplay of contrasts between reds, pinks, yellows, and whites, as well as the depth of its dark background. A work full of freshness and spontaneity, it reflects a sensitive and colorful approach to the still-life genre. The painting is distinguished by its generous application of paint and a particularly dynamic brushwork. The impasto and broad brushstrokes lend relief to the petals and give the entire composition a beautiful vitality. The artist prioritizes the expression of color and light over a meticulous rendering of details. Period: The 1950s Artist: Geneviève
