

Gilded Copper Chatelaine Set--england, Ca. 1740--complete With All Its Utensils

980 EUR

Period : 18th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Copper

Length : 10,5

Width : 4

Description

Lady's Toiletry Set
Gilded copper, steel, and ivory
England, circa 1740-----~10.5 x ~4 x ~2 [W x D x H]
Very fine condition
Complete with all its utensils-----Beautiful asymmetrical Rococo decoration featuring repoussé clasps and flowers on an amati background; the sides are centered with figures (a warrior in ancient-style armor and a woman in a court dress).
Beautiful remnants of mercury gilding.
Complete with all its original utensils:
o a small rose copper spoon
o a rose copper threader
o a folding knife with a gilded copper handle, adorned with repoussé insects, with a rose-colored copper blade
o a pair of steel sewing scissors with rose-colored copper spring-loaded loops
o a rose-colored copper mechanical pencil
o a rose-colored copper ear pick o a two-panel ivory writing tablet with a

Dealer

Thuriot Antiquaire

Passeur de patrimoine depuis 2005

Tel : 0041275588025

Mobile : 0041788665110

Rue du Grand-Pont 6

Sion 1950

gilded copper eyelet-----These cases were often part of a chatelaine, where they hung alongside a thread case, a needle case, and a thimble case.