1 800 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Quelques manques

Material : Wax

Description

A beautiful, cohesive set of eight figures and decorative plaques in polychrome wax, some in high relief, depicting figures in historical costumes, musicians, a horseman, and decorative compositions. The figures are cast, then finely refined and hand-painted with an original polychrome palette dominated by red, green, brown, and gold. Several pieces feature a small ring on the back, allowing them to be displayed suspended. Probably produced in Austria or the Austro-Hungarian Empire, in the tradition of decorative polychrome wax objects, circa 1850-1880. A particularly decorative and rare set, preserved in its original condition with a few small chips and some wear on the wax.
