Description

A rare and charming antique wooden lottery set, of the "Loterie Parisienne" type, probably French, circa 1900. Presented in the form of a small, theatrical display case, this piece features a beautiful green-painted wooden facade, richly adorned with gilded decorations, with a red fabric interior background. The central section features a large, numbered lottery wheel, surrounded by several small compartments designed to display the prizes. It features various small decorative elements and vintage accessories: a figurine, a small vehicle, a chair or armchair, a die, and turned wooden pieces. The piece evokes old French lottery games and carnival attractions, some of which are now sought after by collectors of antique toys, folk art, and carnival items. A beautiful decorative piece with a
