

Biscuit Sculpture "nude Bather On A Rock" After Raphael Nannini (1852-1925), 19th Century

350 EUR

Signature : Raphaël Nannini (1852-1925)

Period : 19th century

Condition : En l'etat

Material : Biscuit

Description

A biscuit porcelain statuette depicting a nude woman seated on a rock, modeled after the Italian sculptor Raphael Nannini. Engraved on the back: "d'après Nanini," an apocryphal Sèvres mark, and numbered "No. 78" on the base. Raphaël Nannini (19th-20th century) was born in Florence. He worked as a sculptor in his hometown and created bronze and ivory figures for French companies such as Les Neveux de J. Lehman and Edmond Etling in the early 20th century. He also exhibited at the Paris Salon. Date: late 19th century
Circa: 1880
Dimensions: height 38 cm

Dealer

Le Cabinet de Mercure

Antiquaires généralistes

Mobile : 0685611842

7, place Dauphine

Rabastens 81800