

A Rare Scottish Regency Mahogany Library Secrétaire.

8 750 EUR

Signature : Attribué à : W I L L I A M T R O T T E R

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Mahogany

Width : 109

Height : 96.5

Depth : 59

Description

A rare Scottish Regency Mahogany Library Secrétaire. Interesting to see is, that there are a lot of small special drawers (inlaid with the letters of the alphabet) and a secret compartments in the top section. In the under section, behind the doors, there are folio slides. Still with the typical Edinburgh pattern original brass mounts and handles and with the beautiful old patination, circa: 1810 in original old used condition with original old beautiful patination attributed to: W I L L I A M T R O T T E R Edinburgh (1772-1833). The lock stamped with the famed Joseph Bramah 14 Piccadilly. Joseph Bramah established his prestigious security and engineering business in London in 1784. He was famous for his precision and resistance locks. With engraved silver plaque on top with the following text: "Left to Gabriela

Dealer

Koos Limburg Jnr

General antiques ,FOR THE NEW COLLECTOR AND THE MUSEUM DIRECTOR

Tel : +44 1575 540 207

Mobile : voir aussi www.kooslimburg.com

Glen Prosen DD8 4SD

Cunninghame Graham of Gartmore, by Anna
Lady Erskine 1885 "This rare library secretaire was a gift to Gabriela Cunninghame Graham of Gartmore by Anna Lady Erskine 1885. Lady Anna
Erskine born Scotland 1802, died in 1886 in Leamington Spa, she was the wife of a politician. Gabriela Cunninghame Graham of Gartmore born 1858 died 1906 was a writer, translator, lecturer and socialist. She was known as a dynamic woman. 96.5cm high, 109cm wide, 59cm deep.