Description

An extremely rare illuminated choir book dating from the second half of the 15th century to the early 16th century (High Renaissance), distinguished by the style of its miniatures and decorative friezes; the blue and red initial, embellished with pure gold and featuring a figure at its center, is particularly exquisite; on one side, floral motifs on a gilded background and acanthus scrolls. The text on the page refers to a liturgical celebration in October and was used by the church choir during autumn Matins or Vespers.
