Description

A beautiful 19th-century framed ivory miniature depicting the young Joséphine de Beauharnais posing on her sofa, dressed in a light silk gown with a daring neckline that highlights her shoulders; a charming portrayal of this lovely woman, natural and full of innocence. Set in a patinated pearwood frame with a guilloché-engraved, gilded pompon border, this is a collector's piece in good condition and full of charm, dating from the late 19th century.
