Description

Elegant console table masterfully crafted from fine Swiss pine, intricately carved and gilded with meticulous care, giving the piece a refined appearance. The legs of this console table are arched in the shape of a lyre and feature intricate plant motifs, lending the piece an aesthetically captivating look. The console's top is crafted from a splendid arched Bardiglio marble, which has been worked and polished with wax to impart a brilliant sheen. The edge of the top is finely finished with an elegant owl's beak motif, adding a further touch of refinement to the entire piece. This piece fits perfectly into settings of great taste and tradition, helping to create a classic and sophisticated atmosphere. Tuscan craftsmanship, dating from the Louis XV period, mid-18th century. Dimensions: H x W x D 89 x 136 x
