1929. The artist: Born in Nagasaki. Graduated in 1907 from the Kyoto Municipal University of Arts. He began sculpting full-time after completing his military service in 1915 and was appointed professor at the Tokyo School of Fine Arts in 1921. He became a member of the Japan Art Academy in 1925. The Taisho period (1912-26) saw his rise to prominence, marked by numerous awards and official commissions. His style is powerful, with the human form prominently featured. It shows a strong influence from the art of Rodin. In 1931, he decorated the central hall of the National Diet. After 1945, he retired and created a series of monumental
