

Meiji-era Japanese Lacquered Sake Cups

250 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Lacquer

Diameter : 9,5

Description

Lacquered sake cups Design featuring wading birds/cranes among pine trees, on a red background. Mount Fuji design on a red background. Diameters: 9.5 and 9 cm. These objects were used at grand banquets, particularly during journeys, when it was customary to use the cup adorned with the landscape in which the Shogun was traveling. They were given as diplomatic gifts among the daimyos. Meiji-period Japan, circa 1860-80. Price: EUR250 per cup.

Dealer

Reflets des Arts

Japanese works of Art

Tel : +33 (0)6 21 32 20 24

42 rue de Verneuil

Paris 75007