Description

I am offering these two superb Art Deco-era glass vases by Muller Frères of Lunéville. -First, a superb and very rare spherical vase with a flat neck by the Muller brothers in Lunéville, circa 1920-1930, signed with a point on the body. Beautiful proportions and quite substantial: Height: 15 cm, circumference: 46 cm, and diameter: 13 cm In perfect condition. This is indeed a rare Muller vase, for while models with the same shape and decoration are occasionally found, this one features a variation and a rarity: the neck is lemon yellow. Indeed, this ball-shaped vase features a design of interlayered powders in bright red and blue tones, but the neck is adorned with a magnificent yellow enamel, which obviously makes all the difference. Perhaps a prototype.... Price for this vase alone: 290EUR-

Next, a second vase, this time in intense, glossy blue glass, also decorated with interlayered powders in shades of orange-brown, and this time it also features splashes of gold leaf in various places. The glass is obviously very thick; it is a very dense piece. Same signature as the previous one, at the tip of the body. Height: 15 cm Also in perfect condition. Price for this vase alone: 340EUR Or, finally, price for both: 570EUR--your choice
