Description

A stunning oil on heavy cardboard by French painter Geneviève Chapront, born in 1909, depicting a generous bouquet of flowers in a vase. This floral composition captivates with its energetic and spontaneous brushwork, its generous impasto, and its harmonious palette of pinks, whites, blues, and deep greens. The artist depicts an abundant bouquet of flowers with pink, white, and red petals, intermingled with dense, lush foliage. The arrangement is set in a vase in shades of mauve and pink, standing out against a blue-gray background rendered in a rich and vibrant painterly style. Here, Geneviève Chapront prioritizes pictorial expression and spontaneity of brushwork, lending this still life a strong decorative presence and a beautiful vitality. The work is signed "Geneviève Chapront" in the
