

Staff Officer's Saber - First Empire - Hussar-style Blade - Known As The "marengo"

2 050 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Metal

Length : 105 cm -- sf : 100 cm -- lame: 82 cm

Width : lame au talon : 3 cm

Description

First Empire staff officer's saber, known as the "Marengo," 19th century. Curved hussar-style blade. Checkered "un flél" grip with vertical lines. Brass mount with a short-tailed pommel topped by a decorative motif and a lion's head. Single-branch guard, chiseled with decorative motifs and knotted lugs featuring military insignia on a sandblasted background, terminating in a lion's muzzle. Curved blade with a flat back and hollow edges, featuring a single cutting edge and a counter-cut edge at the point. Blade engraved in the upper third with foliage and military insignia. Thick gray leather strap present. Brass scabbard decorated with a spiderweb pattern, floral motifs, and an engraved tip (see photos). Scabbard with two suspension rings. Length: 105 cm Length without scabbard:

Dealer

Le Lys et l'Epée

Art premier, Memento Mori, Judaica, Maçonnique, Militaria, Bijoux, Mode

Tonnay-Charente 17430

100 cmBlade length: 82 cmBlade width at the heel: 3 cmIn excellent condition and well-used, with its original finish and patina; see photos.Free shipping within France.International shipping rates available upon request, depending on the destination country.Check out my other items by visiting my gallery and our website:
<https://www.IrisAntik.com>