Description

Elegant antique Louis Philippe-style dresser, dating from the mid-19th century, finely veneered with fine walnut burl. The piece features a simple and balanced design, typical of the period, with three large drawers embellished by the burl's refined symmetrical grain. Its contoured top, solid sides, and slightly curved front legs lend the piece a sense of solidity and harmony. Equipped with original locks, the dresser retains a warm period patina that enhances its authenticity and historical charm. The piece requires restoration. Ideal for classic settings or as a statement piece in contemporary interiors.
