Description

This remarkable 19th-century reliquary holds an Important relic of: Saint Aloysius de Gonzaga. Aloysius de Gonzaga, SJ (Italian: Luigi Gonzaga; 9 March 1568 - 21 June 1591) was an Italian aristocrat who became a member of the Society of Jesus. While still a student at the Roman College, he died as a result of caring for the victims of a serious epidemic. He was beatified in 1605 and canonized in 1726. The relic is housed in a simple yet elegant oval brass reliquary with an aged patina that enhances its historical charm. It is securely enclosed beneath its original glass and displays a red silk background. At the back of the reliquary, we find the Episcopal's wax seal of His Eminence Cardinal Costantino Patrizi Naro, Dean of the College of Cardinals, holding the threads together.
