Description

An elegant Art Deco sculpture depicting two male pheasants, captured in the moment they face each other at close range in a confrontational scene. The figures are rendered in the typical geometric stylization of the 1920s and 1930s: concise forms, clean and dynamic lines, plumage suggested by sharp planes, and long, tapered tails that extend in a sinuous and slender manner, lending the composition great rhythm and lightness. Origin: France Period: early 1900s Style: Art Deco Dimensions: 82x15x22h (head 34h tail) SKU: 17547
