

PROANTIC
LE PLUS BEAU CATALOGUE D'ANTIQUITES

Six-rilled Cut

3 800 EUR

Signature : Laudin I

Period : 17th century

Condition : Très bon état

Description

Jacques I LAUDIN (c. 1627-1695) Limoges, France, 17th century Enameled copper H.: 4.5; L.: 16.5; W.: 17.5 cm Round cup with six gadroons and two handles, made of enameled copper with a hexagonal base depicting a winged Cupid carrying his quiver over his shoulder and riding a lion in the foreground of a landscape scene. The lobes are adorned with a polychrome design of flowers and birds on a white background. The reverse features a medallion in the center depicting a thatched cottage in front of a pond. The peripheral frieze is punctuated by two bird figures, flowers with small square silver leaf inlays called "paillons" in place of petals, and gold foliage scrolls on a black background. The handles are flat and openwork, decorated with gold scrolls on a black background. It bears the

Dealer

Collection

Rare & Unusual Objects

Mobile : 0032475266745

Mons 7000

monogram "IL" in gold letters at the bottom center of the main scene. Bibliography:- A cup with six godrons is reproduced in the book Musée du Louvre, les émaux peints de Limoges by Sophie Baratte, 2000, p. 403.- A piece with a similar floral and avian design is held at the Musée des Beaux-Arts de Reims under inventory number 901.2.8158. In good condition.