Description

Louis XV-style chest of drawers in richly carved walnut - 19th century Beautiful 19th-century carved walnut chest of drawers, featuring rich decoration in the Louis XV style. Tall and narrow in shape, it is topped by a substantial sculpted, molded cornice, adorned with a basket of fruit, foliage, and sculpted grape clusters. The upper part of the large door features a scalloped opening adorned with six turned spindles, revealing the interior shelves. The lower section is particularly decorative, carved with a trophy featuring rustic and musical motifs, surrounded by flowering branches and topped with a bow. It also opens via a drawer in the lower section. The lower crossbar, openwork and richly carved with flowers and foliage, rests on scroll-shaped legs. The interior is fitted with several shelves.
