Description

Striking Art Deco center desk in burl, mahogany, and blackened wood--with its chair A very elegant Art Deco center desk, featuring an imposing and highly decorative design. The piece is crafted from precious wood, playing on the contrast between deep reddish-brown tones and darker, blackened wood frames. The wide rectangular top features beautiful, dynamic grain, highlighted by a glossy varnish finish. The front is organized around a central drawer and two side cabinets closed by doors. These are adorned with molded panels carved with motifs typical of the Art Deco decorative style. Inside, the desk offers ample storage space: four drawers on each side, for a total of eight side drawers, in addition to the central drawer. An interesting feature is that the desk also has two wide retractable side pull-outs,
