

Louis XVI-style Display Cabinet Made Of Painted And Gilded Wood--decorated With Ribbons And Trophy

850 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Painted wood

Width : 72

Height : 175

Depth : 40

Description

Louis XVI-style display cabinet in painted and gilded wood--decorated with ribbons and a trophy
Elegant Louis XVI-style display cabinet, made of wood painted in a soft cream shade, accented with carved and gilded details. The front features a large glass door, allowing for a beautiful display of collectibles. The interior, lined with a striped fabric in light tones, is fitted with two glass shelves. The piece features rich ornamentation characteristic of the Louis XVI style: foliage friezes, rows of pearls, floral cascades, and knotted ribbons. The upper section is crowned by a large carved ribbon bow, extended by garlands. The lower section is particularly decorative, featuring a trophy carved in relief, composed of crossed attributes, foliage, flowers, and ribbons. The side panels are accented with

Dealer

Tino antiquites

Mobilier

Mobile : 0763127955

11 rue de bel air à l'huys laurent

Dun les Places 58230

delicate cascades of gilded flowers. The piece rests on four tapered, fluted legs, typical of the Louis XVI style. The sides are also glazed, bringing plenty of light into the interior and allowing the displayed objects to be admired from multiple angles. Beautiful antique finish in cream and gold, featuring a patina and some signs of wear that add to the piece's charm. Style: Louis XVIMaterial: carved, painted, and gilded wood - glassHeight: 175 cmWidth: 72 cmDepth: 40 cmA highly decorative, elegant, and luminous display cabinet, ideal for showcasing porcelain, glassware, bronzes, or collectibles in a classic interior.