Description

A charming Belgian Art Deco wall cabinet crafted in solid oak, dating to approximately 1925. This beautifully proportioned hanging cabinet combines the geometric restraint of the Art Deco period with subtle decorative details inspired by earlier Arts & Crafts traditions. The cabinet features a single glazed door with textured amber-colored glass divided by elegant muntins, allowing a glimpse of the interior while softly diffusing light. Inside, two shelves provide practical storage and display space for glassware, ceramics, collectibles, or everyday essentials. Decorative scalloped edging, small geometric appliqués, and the raised gallery top contribute to its distinctive architectural character. The warm oak grain and rich honey-brown patina highlight the quality of the craftsmanship, while the
