

Kota Sango Reliquary Figure, Gabon

2 500 EUR

Period : 20th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

A superb Kota Sango reliquary from Gabon; note the beautiful patina of age. It comes from the collection of Richard Dams, a certified history teacher history, former professor of history, art history, and aesthetics, and former aid worker in the Congo (Zaire) (lecturer in the history of African civilizations, art history, and aesthetics). Height 40 cm; nails are missing from the wooden base and likely a small plaque on the back, where two nails remain embedded (see photo 4)
