Description

A magnificent small Louis-Philippe-style walnut sideboard, featuring rare and sought-after proportions. It immediately captivates with the quality of its wood and the remarkable craftsmanship of its veneer, highlighting a grain with deep, warm hues. At the top, its top flares out into an elegant, smoothly curved fillet that skillfully conceals a first drawer hidden within the band. The front opens with two matching doors, enhanced by their original escutcheon-style lock plates. Inside, a shelf provides space for your belongings. The piece rests on a sturdy plinth that discreetly incorporates a second hidden drawer, offering valuable and ingenious storage space. Thanks to its compact size, this exceptional piece will naturally find its place in sophisticated interiors.
