Description

A Baroque-style sideboard made of oak, dating from the late 19th century in Italy. This imposing piece features an upper section with a paneled door that conceals an iron safe inside, offering not only aesthetic beauty but also functionality and security. The design continues with a central drawer for additional storage space, while the base is completed by another paneled door, harmonizing with the upper one. The plinth-style legs provide stability and a classic touch. This piece, with its richly crafted lines and details, represents a refined example of Baroque-era craftsmanship, ideal for settings that call for elegance and historical character. Product condition: Due to its age and wear, this item requires restoration and refinishing. We strive to present the actual condition of the piece as fully
